

I always say that the most important thing I can do as a Congressman is listen to the voices of the folks I represent. That's why I've hosted three Congress on the Corners in August in the 12th District and why I will be hosting six more before I have to head back to Washington in September. You shouldn't have to travel all the way to our nation's capital or make a long-distance phone call to speak with your Congressman.

This Saturday, August 29th, I'll be visiting with folks in Johnson, Jefferson, and Burke Counties. Next Saturday, September 5th, I'll be visiting with folks in Taliaferro, Warren, and Glascock Counties. These meetings are free and open to the public.

I'll be there - along with my staff members - to hear your concerns or answer any questions you may have. We're also always available to help you deal with government agencies, such as the Veterans Administration, Medicare, or the Social Security Administration.

I'll be holding Congress on the Corner at the following times and locations:
